

Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles
Crescenta Valley/Glendale Service Unit's
 33rd Annual International Tasting Bee
 World Thinking Day Event

2017 Theme: Grow!!!

The World Thinking Day Challenge for 2017 will be a journey of growth, supporting Girl Guiding and Girl Scouting groups as we introduce our Movement to new members.

Sunday, April 2, 2017

2:30 pm - 5:00 pm

"Parade of Countries" begins at 3:00 p.m.

Pacific Community Center
 501 S. Pacific Avenue, Glendale, CA 91204

Bring your family and friends and travel around the world tasting exotic food!
 EVERYONE IS WELCOME TO PARTICIPATE!

Safety Wise: Adult/Girl Ratio must be met by Troop.
 Emergency contact to be provided upon registration

HOSTING A BOOTH: Hosting troops will select a country to represent and learn about its culture, customs, and food. Girls will dress in costume, participate in a parade of countries, decorate their booth, and serve "tastes" of foods representative of their country. Girl Scouts will be recognized for their knowledge about Girl Scouts, best costumes, booth decorations, and presentation of their selected country's culture.

ATTENDING THE BEE: Everyone is invited to attend the Bee (whether setting up a booth or not; whether a registered Scout or not). Come out and enjoy the festivities!!

SPECIAL THIS YEAR: Any girl wanting to participate in SWAPS is welcomed to make swaps to bring to the event.

BADGE: Scouts attending the event can earn requirements to receive the World Thinking Day Badge which can be worn on the front of the vest. The badge is sold separately.
